

RANGE SHIPPING DESIGN TEMPLATE

Google Stitch Design System & Creative Direction

Project Overview

Design a premium, modern maritime website for Range Shipping, a London-based dry bulk shipping company established in 2017.

The objective is to reposition the company as a highly credible, globally active dry-bulk operator that inspires confidence among charterers, traders, shipowners, investors, and business partners.

The website should feel significantly more advanced than traditional shipping company websites. It should combine the trust and professionalism of institutional finance brands with the scale and prestige of leading maritime operators.

Avoid generic WordPress aesthetics, outdated maritime visuals, excessive text blocks, and traditional corporate layouts.

Brand Positioning

Core Message

Fully Integrated Dry Bulk Operators

Range Shipping provides reliable, transparent, and commercially driven dry-bulk shipping solutions worldwide while maintaining a strong commitment to sustainability, operational excellence, and long-term partnerships.

Sustainability Direction

Sustainability should be treated as a major pillar.

Themes:

- United Nations SDGs
- Environmental responsibility
- Operational efficiency
- Industry collaboration
- Long-term stewardship

Avoid greenwashing visuals.

Use sophisticated data-driven presentation.

Imagery Direction

Preferred:

- Modern bulk carriers
- Ocean aerial photography
- Trade routes
- Port operations
- Global maritime infrastructure
- Professional executive portraits

Avoid:

- Generic stock shipping photos
 - Cartoon illustrations
 - Overused handshake imagery
 - Cheap corporate photography

Technical Ambition

Industry-leading digital experience for the dry-bulk sector.

The website should feel comparable to modern fintech and enterprise SaaS websites while maintaining maritime authenticity.

Mobile-first.

Performance-driven.

Accessibility compliant.

Premium animation integrated throughout the user journey.
